Man charged with threatening officer

A Hoopeston man was arrested Thursday night after police say he threatened an officer with a gun.

Elbert W. Cannon, 30, of 506 W. Maple, was arrested at 10:20 p.m. on preliminary charges of domestic battery, unlawful use of a weapon, intimidation, aggravated battery on a police officer, aggravated assault with a firearm and six counts of resisting arrest.

Police said they were called to Cannon's home for an altercation between Cannon and Rebecca A. Cannon.

Police said when Officer Roger Beaty entered the house, Cannon threatened him with a .50 caliber black powder rifle. Beaty left the house and called for assistance. When other officers responded and entered the house, police said Cannon struggled with them without the gun and was subdued with pepper spray.

Cannon was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing.

Iris M. Galloway, 108 N. Summit, Rossville, reported Thursday that someone scratched he 1992 Oldsmobile while it was parked in the 200 block of East Main.

Teri Inman, 327 W. Lincoln, reported Thursday that her son's Chicago Bulls starter jacket was taken from 609 W. Main.

The license plate reported lost or stolen Wednesday was found Thursday at Fifth and Maple. The owner was notified.

Beth Carpenter, 701 E. Main, reported Friday that her rear license plate, CARPVB2, is missing.

Daryle Garmon, 48, of 108 Green, Tilton, was arrested at 12:30 a.m. Saturday in the 300 block of West

Main.

Garman faces preliminary charges of driving under the influence of alcohol and speeding.

He was released on bond and his driver's license.

Michael A. Trautvetter, 20, of 425 E. McNeil, was arrested at 1:42 p.m. Saturday on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear. He was released on $100 bond.

Charles E. Freeland, 20, 104 Kenwood Road, Champaign, was arrested at 10:52 p.m. Saturday, charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and illegal transportation of alcohol after a traffic stop at West Penn and South Third St.

Freeland was released on $100 cash bond and his license.

Shanna York reported Saturda that her 1995 Ford was scratched while it was parked at 811 N. Third St.
